

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Empowering Faculty for NAAC Success: Harsha College of Pharmacy, in collaboration with Harsha Institutions, organized an engaging and informative Faculty Development Program focused on the NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) perspective. Esteemed experts like Dr. S. Ravichandra Reddy, Dr. Maya Salimath, and Dr. Sharadha Ramesh led insightful sessions, equipping faculty with vital knowledge on the accreditation process and its Key Takeaways on NAAC Criteria and Documentation: The faculty were given a deep dive into the NAAC accreditation framework, including the seven key criteria, effective documentation practices, and the significance of evidence collection. Dr. Ravichandra Reddy's session highlighted the pivotal role teachers play in the accreditation process, while Dr. Salimath's guidance on Internal Quality Assurance Cells (IQAC) emphasized continuous quality improvement.

Collaborative Growth for Institutional Excellence: The program fostered a collaborative environment with participation from faculty across Harsha Institutions. Faculty members left the session feeling motivated and equipped to contribute to the institution's growth, armed with practical tools for strategic planning, documentation, and quality enhancement, ensuring Harsha Institutions continue to meet the highest accreditation standards for years to come!
